SCHUELLER, chief editor of the LINZ newspaper, Neue Zeit, official paper of the Communist Party of Austria, made the following statements on the working schedule of the Communist Party of Austria

1. Party activities in Parliament, diet and communities.
The Party must always claim to be the only representation of the workers which is repressed as a minority. The danger of fascism must also be emphasized and the Western Parliaments must be made to speak of a fascist dictatorship in Austria. The Association of the Independents (VDU) must constantly be criticized.
2. Activities by the Party organizations.
 - a. The Central Committee is particularly interested in giving expert training to party functionaries, especially those who were taken over from the Socialist Party of Austria when the leftist block was established. Experience showed that mere attendance of functionaries' schools is insufficient to train true activists. Graduates of such schools must work as propagandists and demonstrate their capabilities by changing the attitude of the workers in enterprises.
 - b. The Communist propaganda must still confine itself to small enterprises where cells are to be established or properly reorganized. Each enterprise cell is to establish propaganda groups, with one man assigned to compile information useful for propaganda against opponent politicians. Efforts to undermine the Socialist Party of Austria must be continued so that its left wing will be strengthened. The Communist Party of Austria is by no means interested in increasing its membership. However, it is necessary to win the women, and for this purpose new methods must be employed, as the women's organization did not prove too attractive. The Free Austrian Youth proved the most efficient organization during the election contest, and its reorganization in the summer of 1949 was a success. Several propagandists will be trained and assigned special missions to spread propaganda in large plants in Upper Austria.
